Home Affairs and Citizenship

All children in migration are vulnerable and in need of protection.

In its Communication, the Commission sets out urgent actions to be taken as part of a comprehensive approach for the protection of children in migration in the EU.

Identifying and protecting children

- ▶ Commission and EU agencies → improve guidance for identifying and registering children in migration
- ▶ Commission and EU agencies → support Member States in collecting data
- ▶ Commission → support the Member States to integrate child protection and safeguarding procedures for all children in migration, and take action to prevent children going missing, ensure follow-up to cases of disappearances
- ▶ Member States → to appoint a child protection officer in each hotspot

Children's access to status determination procedures and procedural safeguards

- ▶ Commission and EU agencies → establish a European guardianship network in cooperation with European Network of Guardianship Institutions
- ▶ Member States → recruit and train guardians to safeguard the best interests of unaccompanied children
- ▶ Member States → prioritise cases and proceedings involving children
- ▶ Member States → prioritise the relocation of unaccompanied children from Greece and Italy

Reception in the EU

- ▶ Commission → promote alternatives to detention of children
- ▶ Member States → ensure children's individual needs are assessed in first reception centres
- ▶ Member States → provide timely access to legal assistance, healthcare and psychological support.
- ▶ Member States → provide a range of alternative care options for unaccompanied children, e.g. foster care
- ▶ Commission and EU agencies → prepare guidance on reception conditions for unaccompanied children

Durable solutions

- ▶ Commission → promote integration through funding and exchange of good practices
- ▶ Member States → ensure children's equal access to education within short time span after arrival
- ▶ Member States → implement programmes to support full inclusion (teacher training, skills and language assessment, special support for unaccompanied children, etc.)
- ▶ Member States → step up actions for resettlement of children through national programmes and EU schemes.

Collecting data, exchanging good practices and implementing the Communication

- ▶ Commission and EU agencies → launch consultation on data collection methodology with the aim of improving data on children in migration
- ▶ Commission → establish an online database of good practices
- ▶ Commission and EU agencies → monitor implementation of actions set out in Communication
- ▶ Member States → ensure children are informed about their rights
- ▶ Member States → Train all those working with children in migration (border guards, guardians, reception care workers, etc.)
- ▶ Member States → prioritise children in migration under Asylum Migration and Integration Fund (AMIF) and Internal Security Fund (ISF) national programmes.
